

Making Breastfeeding Work: Worksite Self-Assessment

This tool was modified from Boulder County Public Health's Making Breastfeeding Work.

Date: _____

Business Name _____ Contact Person _____

Email _____ Phone _____

Type of business sector: For-profit _____ Nonprofit _____ Government _____ Other _____

Type of industry _____

Number of employed women of childbearing age (15-44) _____

Percent of your overall workforce who are women _____

Departments that employ higher proportions of women _____

Check all that apply.

Policy: An explicit policy or set of guidelines outlining organization support for breastfeeding employees

Progressing	Breastfeeding Friendly	Breastfeeding Advocate
<input type="checkbox"/> We do not have a breastfeeding policy.	<input type="checkbox"/> We have a written breastfeeding policy but it is not regularly distributed to all employees.	<input type="checkbox"/> Breastfeeding policy-related information is provided to all new hires.
<input type="checkbox"/> Our breastfeeding policy is informal and is not written or regularly communicated to staff.	<input type="checkbox"/> We have a written policy and it is distributed or communicated to all employees at least once a year.	<input type="checkbox"/> Breastfeeding-related training is provided to all new managers.
<input type="checkbox"/> We are aware of the 2008 Colorado Workplace Accommodation for Nursing Mothers Act (WANMA), including accommodating mothers after her child is born and up to 2 years later.	<input type="checkbox"/> Our policy complies at the minimum requirements with WANMA.	<input type="checkbox"/> Our breastfeeding insurance plan covers breastfeeding equipment or services OR we educate on breastfeeding-related benefits available on the Affordable Care Act.
<input type="checkbox"/> There are significant barriers to developing a breastfeeding policy. These barriers include:	<input type="checkbox"/> There barriers to developing a policy that exceeds the WANMA. These barriers include:	<input type="checkbox"/> Our insurance plan notifies employees that we are a breastfeeding friendly workplace.
_____ _____ _____ _____ _____ _____ _____	_____ _____ _____ _____ _____ _____ _____	<input type="checkbox"/> We contract with a lactation consultant to provide services for breastfeeding employees.
		<input type="checkbox"/> Management initiates discussions for breastfeeding support and resources with employee before maternity leave.
		<input type="checkbox"/> Our policy allows babies to come to work or to be brought to work to nurse at intervals throughout the day.
		<input type="checkbox"/> Our policy exceeds the minimum requirements set by WANMA.

Time: Workplace flexibility

Progressing	Breastfeeding Friendly	Breastfeeding Advocate
<input type="checkbox"/> There are significant barriers to mothers scheduling breaks and work patterns to provide time to breastfeed or express/pump breast milk during the workday. These barriers include: <hr/> <hr/> <hr/> <hr/>	<input type="checkbox"/> There are a few barriers to mothers scheduling breaks and work patterns to provide time to breastfeed or express breast milk during the workday. These barriers include: <hr/> <hr/> <hr/>	<input type="checkbox"/> There are few or no barriers to mothers scheduling breaks and work patterns to provide time to breastfeed or express breast milk during the workday. <input type="checkbox"/> Employees can bring breastfeeding infants to work. <input type="checkbox"/> Childcare is available and accessible to employees and accommodation to breastfeeding. <input type="checkbox"/> We accommodate nursing mothers for over 2 years after the child's birth. <input type="checkbox"/> We provide paid break time and paid flex time to express breast
<input type="checkbox"/> We accommodate nursing mothers for up to 1 year after the child's birth. <input type="checkbox"/> We provide unpaid break time for employees to express milk.	<input type="checkbox"/> We accommodate nursing mothers for up to 2 years after the child's birth. <input type="checkbox"/> We provide paid break time or flex time to express breast milk.

Space: Accessible, clean, private, and safe space other than a bathroom for employees to express or pump breast milk

Progressing	Breastfeeding Friendly	Breastfeeding Advocate
<input type="checkbox"/> There is no designated breastfeeding room(s) available. <input type="checkbox"/> Breastfeeding rooms are only available and identified as the need arises. <input type="checkbox"/> There are significant barriers to providing permanent breastfeeding room(s). These barriers include: <hr/> <hr/> <hr/> <hr/> <hr/>	<input type="checkbox"/> Prioritized breastfeeding room(s) are identified and can be used by employees as needed. <input type="checkbox"/> Breastfeeding room(s) are solely designated as breastfeeding rooms for employees. <input type="checkbox"/> Breastfeeding room(s) have a comfortable chair, table, and electrical outlet. <input type="checkbox"/> Breastfeeding room(s) have a lock on the door, signage indicating use or some privacy protocols. <input type="checkbox"/> Breastfeeding room(s) are located within close proximity to the employee's work station.	<input type="checkbox"/> A functioning sink is in proximity to the pumping space for employees to clean pumping equipment. <input type="checkbox"/> Refrigerator is prioritized for breast milk storage in proximity to the pumping space. <input type="checkbox"/> Breastfeeding-friendly messaging and/or graphics are around the workplace. <input type="checkbox"/> We have electric breast pumps available for employees at the workplace. <input type="checkbox"/> We have breast pump kits available for breast feeding employees. <input type="checkbox"/> We publicize that customers/clients may breastfeed in public spaces. <input type="checkbox"/> The public has access to use breastfeeding room(s). <input type="checkbox"/> We have a baby changing station proximal to the breastfeeding room(s).

THANK YOU!

